October brings us to a focus on Domestic Violence. Meier Bauer, President of Assistance League of Greater Cincinnati, will spend time sharing stories about their clients and the services that they provide. In addition, we will collect items from their "wish list" and send Meier home with a collection of their needs.

Our Mission

Assistance League of Greater Cincinnati is a nonprofit all-volunteer organization dedicated to meeting critical needs of children and adults. All our funds are raised and spent locally to identify, develop, implement and fund ongoing community programs. Your support will help us continue this work.
We developed and manage 5 philanthropic programs

Operation School Bell®
Every fall, Assistance League opens its "store" and outfits students from 35 schools with new shoes, pants, shirts, socks, underwear, belts and jackets. Since 1999, more than 18,000 students have participated.

Trauma Care/ Domestic Violence
Members pack sweatshirts, underwear, socks and hygiene kits for victims of domestic violence and sexual assault whose clothes are often taken as evidence. The kits, delivered to 15 hospitals and six shelters, are a first step to recovery.

Gen-1 Scholars
To help students who are the first in their families to go to college, we partner with a cutting-edge plan at the University of Cincinnati to provide housing scholarships.

New Beginnings
Starting a stable life after abuse and leaving a shelter is scary, especially with children. The kits we deliver include pots and pans, cleaning products, dishes, linens and cutlery - even books and toys - to help make that transition easier.

College Starter Kits
Financially-challenged adult students who struggle to pay for college at four local universities receive flash drives, notebooks and school supplies.
